CHARCUTERIE BOARD IDEAS

1

THE PERFECT FOUNDATION

You could use so many different things as the base of your charcuterie board. We use serving platters quite often but you could use large cutting boards, trays, an Easter basket, or even a small plate, cup, or bowl if you're doing individual charcuteries for friends or family.

2

DECORATIVE ELEMENTS

Before placing your treats on your board (or basket), you could lay down Easter grass, plastic eggs, decorative figurines, cute bowls, ribbon, etc. The possibilities are endless!

3

SAVORY TREATS

Some great options for non-sweet treats could be any variation of the following :

carrot sticks, celery sticks, spinach dip, cheese ball, nice deli meats, nice deli cheeses, baked brie, fancy crackers, crusty bread, etc. Multiple nice meats and cheeses can go a long way and make it feel fancy.

4

SWEET TREATS

Some tasty sweet treats could be any variation of the following :

grapes, strawberries, kiwi, Annie's Bunny Grahms, spring mix M&M's, marshmallow bunnies, marshmallow chicks, Cadbury eggs, jelly beans, peanut butter eggs, chocolate covered pretzels, decorated cookies, rice krispy treats, lindt chocolate carrots, macarons, mini marshmallows, cotton candy, rock candy .. the list goes on and on!

FUN THEMES

Another way to design your board is to base it on a theme. Some of my favorite themes for SPRING are :

Peter Rabbit, Winnie the Pooh, and Alice in Wonderland
